

Flamants Roses

In our wild adventures through the worlds we discovered some strange flamingos. Fascinated by the grace of their dances, we have followed their migration, aboard our ingenious flying machine, learning their silent language and their codes.

Became their friends and their guides in the land of humans, we invites you to share their mysterious rituals, in a fabulous light ballet.

Description :

The pink flamingo : 4 birds, puppeteers stilwalkers (articulated necks really giving the feeling of a living animal), body inflated - totally light machinery - height 3.50 m

A flying machine, small fireworks, sound, smoke machine
